Charles T. Doyle LEADS Scholarship

LEADS (Leadership Education and Development Series) has impacted thousands of students from area high schools in Galveston County since its inception in 2000. Mr. Charles T. Doyle in 2014 renewed his pledge for another ten years to continue financial support of the LEADS program. A portion of the funds provided by LEADS has been set aside to recognize students who have demonstrated a high level of leadership and community service. This scholarship will award $2,000 to the selected student who is among the top 5% of the graduating seniors each year from Texas City High School or La Marque High School. The award will be setup in a scholarship fund to support further education for the student. An additional $500 will be awarded to the teacher of the awarded student that is recognized at the Annual Principal's Honors Breakfast

Jimmy Hayley Memorial Scholarship

The Jimmy Hayley Memorial Scholarship was established in 2016 by Jane Hayley and sons Jerry and Jason. Through this scholarship, we remember Jimmy's passion for the Texas City-La Marque communities and the life-long service he provided as a community leader. Jimmy showed that relationships and service were vital to the success of community growth and exemplified these principals in his everyday life.

VISION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP: It is the intent of this scholarship to recognize graduating seniors from Texas City High School and La Marque High School for their community service and who have a financial need to further their education at a junior college, technical school or community college. Students should possess a good GPA during high school that represents a commitment to their education.

Lee Scoggins Memorial Scholarship

The Lee Scoggins Memorial Scholarship Fund was originally conceived in 2006 by Howard Scoggins and his children Wally Scoggins, Tracy Pfisterer, and Sherry Griesen.

Through this scholarship, we remember Lee's passion for life, her journey and growth through art, the community of artists who touched her life, and her belief in the extraordinary talents and treasures within everyone. Her family provides this gift in recognition of her artistic talent, her dedication, and unending wish to always encourage and share with others those gifts that blessed and enriched her life.

VISIONS OF THE SCHOLARSHIP: To recognize and encourage high school students who have demonstrated desire and creative talent in the visual arts and financially need assistance to pursue their interests in this field.

The Noon Optimist Club of Texas City Scholarship

VISION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

To recognize and encourage high school students who have demonstrated good academics, a willingness to continue an education with a college, university, technical school, or other school deemed appropriate for the student's continued education, and demonstrates a need for financial assistance. Sponsored by the TCISD Foundation for the Future.
